

WEEKLY SUNDAY SERVICE at 11am
MINISTER: REV. G. MACLAUGHLAN
M:07507 710 871

E: GMacLaughlan@churchofscotland.org.uk

I imagine in the last few days most of us have met someone and said 'Happy New Year' or 'All the best for 2023'. And then someone asks the question 'Well, I wonder what this year will bring?'. Unless there is a holiday planned or a special occasion on the horizon, we don't really know what the year will bring but what we do know is that God is always with us and will steer us in the right direction.

"But the Lord is the one who is marching before you! He is the one who will be with you! He won't let you down. He won't abandon you. So don't be afraid or scared!"

DEUTERONOMY 31:8

SUNDAY 8th JANUARY 2023

Grant will lead our worship this Sunday.

At the start of a New Year and as we continue to consider God's plan for the Western Group we will be reading from Ephesians 1:1-14 thinking about what it means to be the Church in the 21st Century

The service will take place in the Hall and will include the Sacrament of Communion. We will return to the practice of Elders serving the elements, whilst taking consideration of Church of Scotland guidance.

Tea and coffee will be available after the service and everyone is invited to stay to continue to enjoy time with others.
