

WEEKLY SUNDAY SERVICE at 11am
MINISTER: REV. G. MACLAUGHLAN

NEWS! The NEWS! Do we get too much news? How many news programmes are there? How many broadcast 24/7?

Do we quickly pass over the today's news and soon desire the novelty of the tomorrow's news? We probably don't think for long about the people involved or reflect on the implications of the issues reported as we rush on to the next news story.

In his "news" letter to the church in Corinth (1 Cor 15:1-6) Paul reminds his readers of the special importance of his news, the gospel that he had recently delivered to them. By this news, he says, you are saved and you must hold firmly to it. He had passed this news to them as being of first importance. Perhaps in our familiarity with the gospel we don't allow ourselves any extra time to reflect on its true meaning and significance? "Read all about it" in 1 Cor 15:1-6.

FOR THE YOUNG & YOUNG AT HEART

Last Sunday we heard about Jesus talking to a Samaritan woman at a well. It was very unusual for a Jew to speak to a Samaritan, but Jesus asked her for a drink and then told her He could give her the water of life. The woman realised Jesus was the Messiah and she went and told her friends.
