

The Easter events are full of different and contrasting emotions - the joy and delight of the crowds on Palm Sunday; the bewildered silence of the disciples as Jesus shared a final meal with them; the disappointment of betrayal; the fear that surged when the soldiers arrested Jesus; the despair, anguish and pain of Good Friday; the uncertainty of Easter Saturday and the faith, doubt and wonder of Easter Sunday. So many different emotions!

Into all of those conflicting and difficult emotions we remember that the Risen Jesus appeared to his disciples, huddled fearfully behind closed doors and declared, 'Peace be with you!' (John 20:19)

This is Easter, in the circumstances you find yourself in, with the emotions that you are experiencing may you hear the whisper of Jesus- 'Peace be with you'.

Yours, Grant
