

WEEKLY SUNDAY SERVICE at 11am
MINISTER: REV. G. MACLAUGHLAN
M:07507 710 871
E: GMaclaughlan@churchofscotland.org.uk

Last week, Alex Duncan received documents from Mary Mackenzie, the daughter of the late minister Rev. G. R. Mackenzie. Included in the collection are: newspaper cuttings about the new hall, the 75th Anniversary service and dinner, histories of our Guild and rules for Marriage arrangements. In the next week while Alex will display these documents in the South Transept for you to look at if interested. Thereafter, they will go into the Archive Box. Alex also tells us that the Rev. George Christie, minister 1902 to 1908, used to read to the Guild at evening meetings and as a thank you they presented a chair to him for the vestry. I wonder what stories he read?

SUNDAY 19th MARCH 2023

Grant is starting a period of study leave, and Dave Murie will lead us in worship this week. Refreshments will be available in the Hall following the service. Please stay and 'connect with a cuppa'.

HOLY WEEK SERVICES

PALM SUNDAY: 2 APRIL - This will be an all-age service held in the Memorial Hall and will be a little more interactive than our normal service. There will be activities to help us in our worship. As always people will not be required to do anything that they feel uncomfortable with. Please do invite family, friends, and neighbours along.

MAUNDY THURSDAY: 6 APRIL – Communion at 7.30pm

FRIDAY REFLECTION: 7 APRIL – Time for quiet prayer in the sanctuary from 7 – 8pm

PASTORAL CARE

During Grant's study leave, if you or someone you know would benefit from pastoral care please contact Rev Nardia Sandison on NSandison@churchofscotland.org.uk

EASTER CARDS

Elizabeth Foster has, once again, been crafting and will have Easter Cards available for sale (in the hall) after services this week and next. As before proceeds will go to buy items for the Foods & Goods Larder.

AD-MINISTRY

We're looking for people gifted in ad-ministry – to share some of the administration tasks undertaken by our volunteers.

Could you manage the answer-machine and admin email account?

Maybe you have some time to manage hall lets.

If you could give some time then please speak to Ramanee or Frances who can give you more information.
