WINTER SERVICES

The Kirk Session decided that this year we will worship in the sanctuary through to the end of the year and then worship in the halls in January and February. It would be helpful for keeping the heat in the building if we kept the Blackness Avenue door closed and used the Shaftesbury Terrace entrance. Thank you for your cooperation with this. And don't be afraid to wear an extra layer. Hats and scarves are permissible!!

Kevin the carrot from Aldi is back on our TV screens and the sparkle fairy from M&S has re-appeared so I don't feel bad about introducing some of the Christmas Activities heading our way.....

CHRISTMAS CARDS

Handmade and recycled Christmas cards will be for sale in the hall on Sundays 12th and 26th November. All proceeds going to our Foods & Goods larder.

FREE WEST END CHRISTMAS CONCERT: SAT 25th NOV@2pm

OUR AD-HOC CHRISTMAS CHOIR

Please meet with Bill McLean immediately after the service on Sunday to volunteer to take part in an adhoc choir for Christmas. As a minimum, singing at the 17th December Carol Service is planned. The carols chosen are 'Angels tell the Christmas Story' and 'Little Children wake and listen'. There will be a very short run through this week before you go through to the hall for refreshments.
