

The events of the first Easter are marked with many different emotions. There was the delight and optimism of Palm Sunday; there is the anguish of Jesus as he prayed at Gethsemane; there is the fear of Peter that led him to deny knowing Jesus; there is the grief of the women who made their way to the Tomb; there is the confusion and bewilderment of encountering a risen Jesus; there is the renewed faith of doubting Thomas. In each moment and in each experience God was at work fulfilling his plan to restore and renew all things.

You may be experiencing similar feelings to some of those characters in the first Easter story because of the circumstances you face. There is joy and sorrow; grief and hope; doubt and faith.

Whatever the reality of your life this Easter, may you know the presence of the Risen Jesus as your companion and friend.

Yours, Grant
